ROL Update Day 7

Helen Keller

“I long to accomplish a great and noble task; but it is my chief duty to accomplish small tasks as if they were great and noble”.

The Final Day....

Today is the last full day in Haiti for our team. They have worked very hard doing construction and teaching. Hopefully they have finished up everything they had planned to accomplish. They will be doing their usual schedule of construction in the morning, Vacation Bible school in the afternoon and church at night. They will also be preparing for their flight home tomorrow.

GCA's (Great Commission Alliance) core values:

- 1) Training and mentoring indigenous men called to the ministry (pastors)
- 2) Building schools, churches, and orphanages
- 3) Escorting missionary teams of volunteers from the United States to assist in construction projects, medical needs, Vacation Bible School, and pastoral training projects

Haiti Facts:

- 11,000 sq. miles. The same size as Maryland
- Population of 7 million people
- Port-Au-Prince – Capital City
- National Dance – Wooden Leg Dance

Haiti's History:

- Haiti has had a long history with problems with it's government
- First country where African slaves fought for their freedom
- Discovered by Christopher Columbus
- Was once a large sugar plantation
